A TRUSTING HEART.

Ever His word to guide thee
Over life's waters wide;
Ever His spirit beside thee
At morning or eventide.

Ever a hope for to-morrow,
Though you in silence weep:
Ever a source where you borrow
Renewed strength as in sleep.

Ever blue skies above thee,
Peace and content within;
Ever a fond heart to love thee,
'Midst all this worldly din.

Ever a foot on the portal,
Near by His throne on high;
Faith in a life immortal,
And ever prepared to die.
